"Time Marches On"

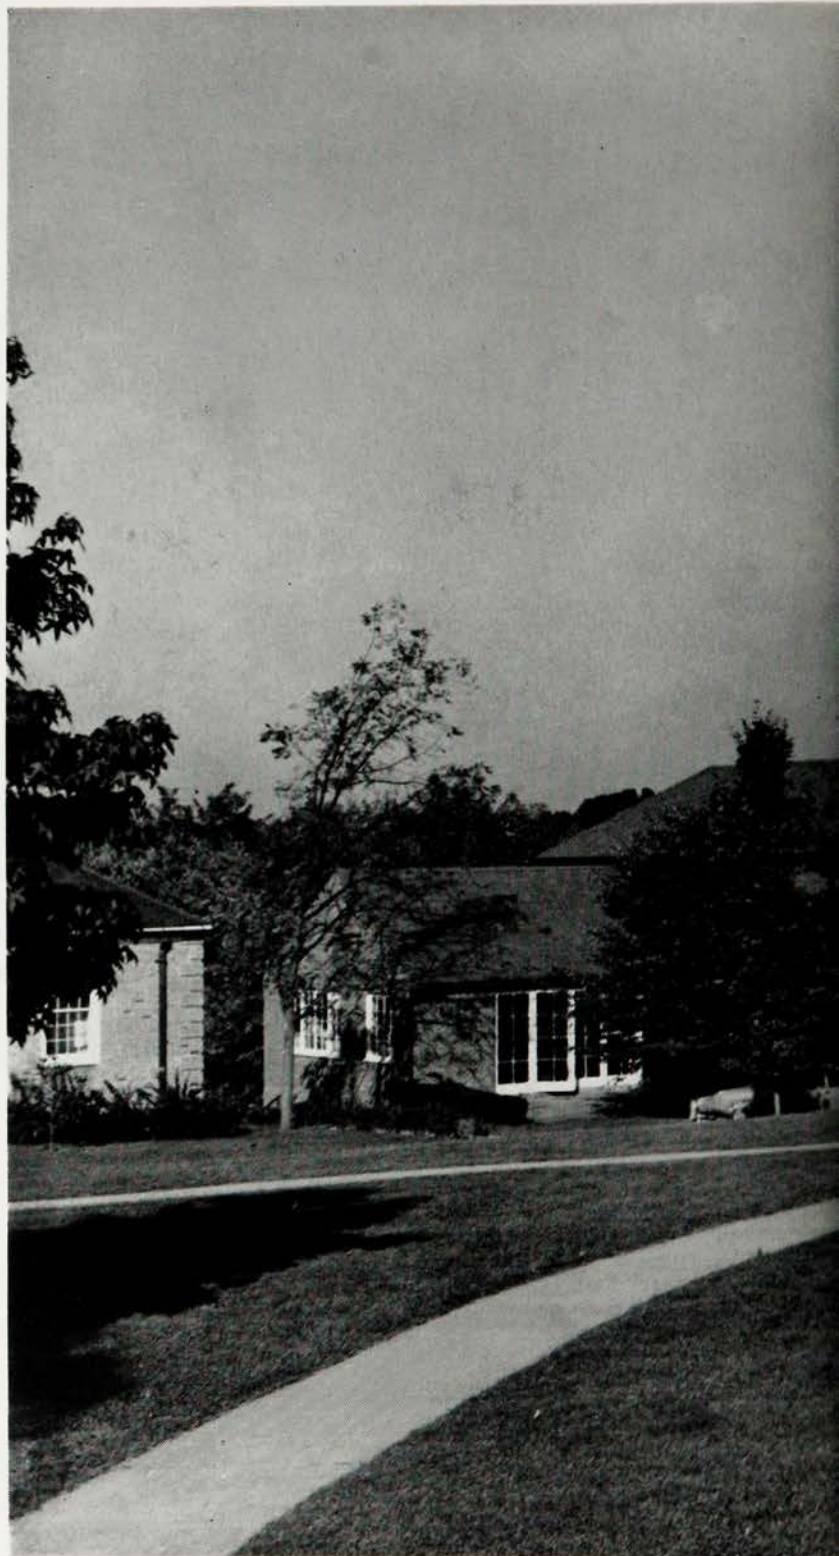

Alma Mater

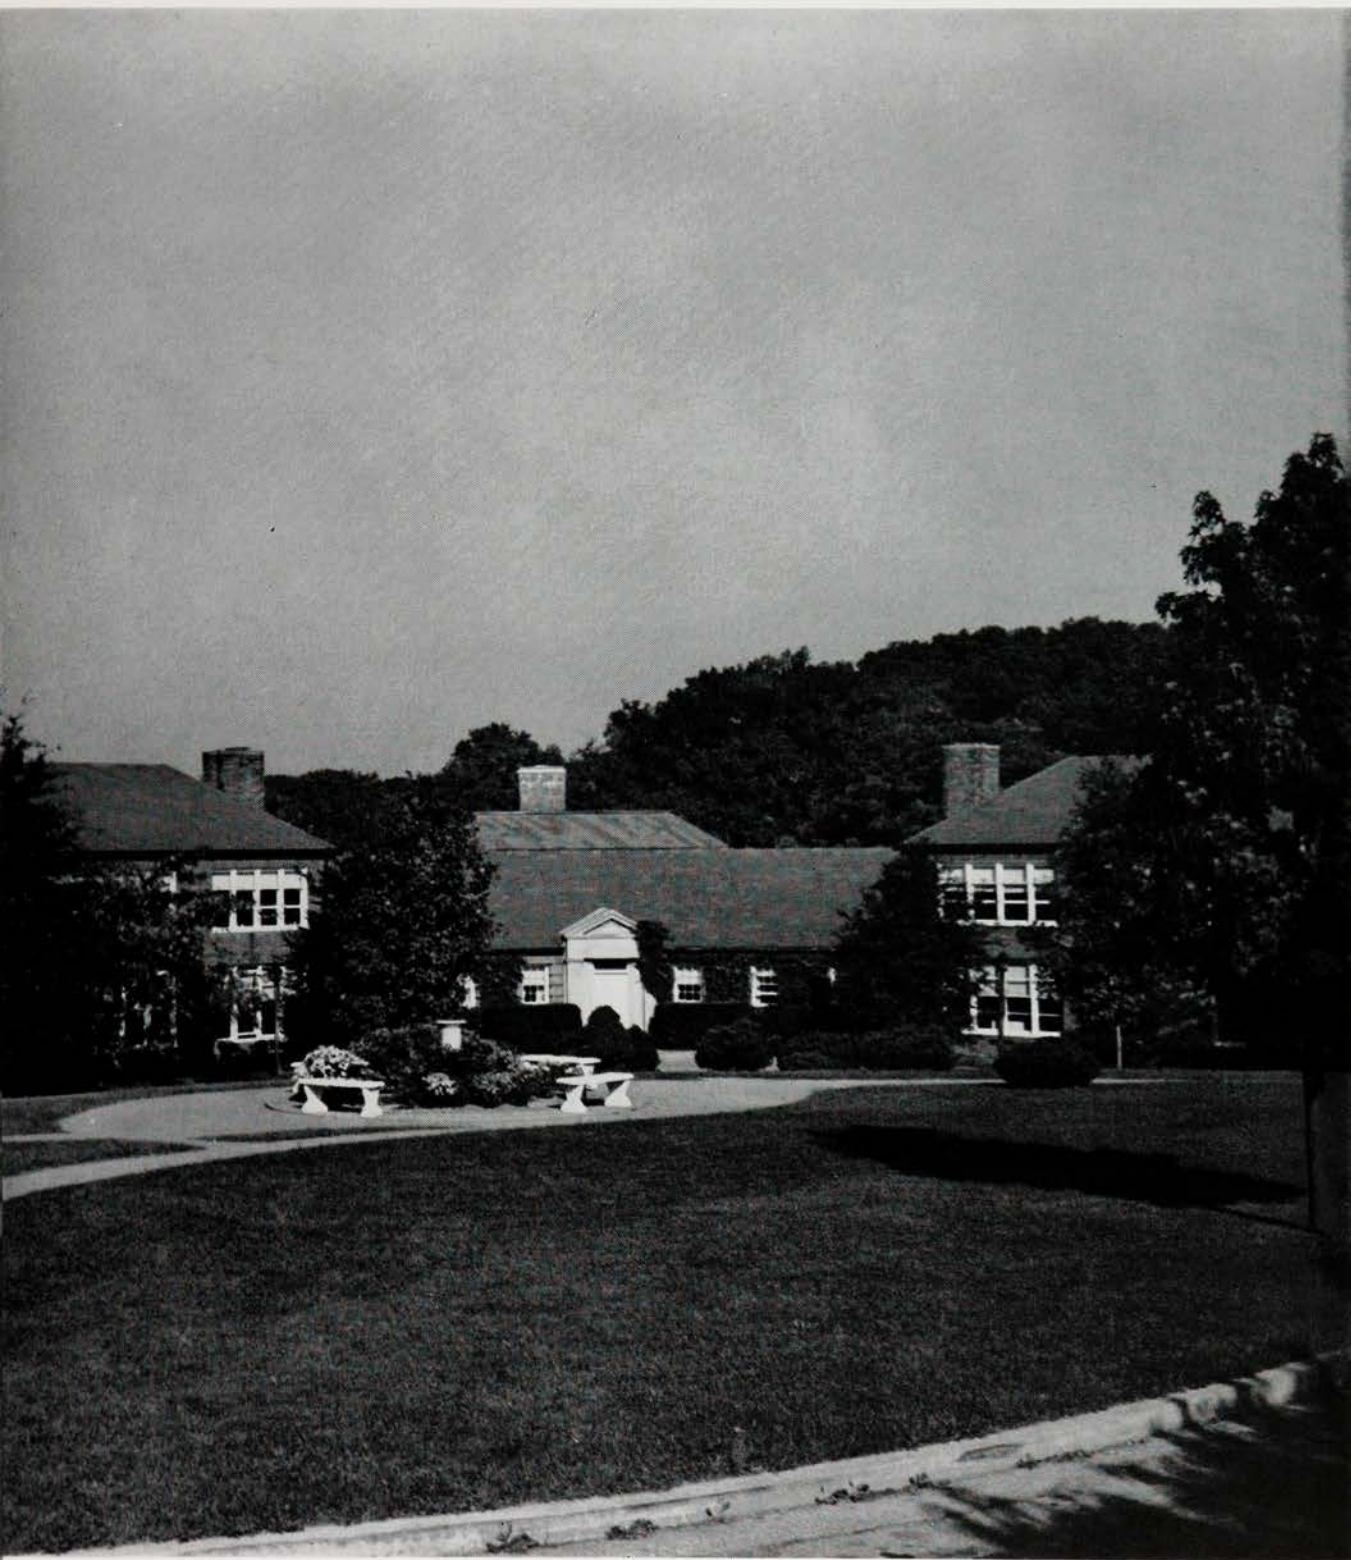

*Our Alma Mater glorious,
With loving hearts and proud,
We crown thee all victorious
And sing thy praise aloud.
In loyalty we serve thee
And strive to heed thy call,
Mount Vernon, O, Mount Vernon!
Through self to conquer all.*

*You give unfailing kindness
If trouble meet us here;
You foster all our pleasures
And make them seem more dear.
Nor time, nor care, nor sorrow
Can these fair days erase,
But they, with each tomorrow
Help us new tasks to face.*

*Like breath of Spring's fresh morning
That lifts the heart to song,
When courage droops and wavers
And paths seem gray and long,
Will come thy dauntless spirit
To help us on the way.
Mount Vernon, O, Mount Vernon!
Hold fast thy tender sway.*

*The changing years may bring us
Some longed for dream of bliss,
Yet memory will cherish
A sympathy we miss.
In hours of joy or sadness,
What'er our need may be,
Mount Vernon, O, Mount Vernon!
Thy children turn to thee.*

Dedication

Devotion, guidance, and sincere friendship have made you beloved by all of your girls. For two years your smile and helping hand have encouraged us as we proceed down the paths toward our future. As Time Marches On, you will be forever in our memory and to you, Mrs. David McLaughlin, we dedicate the BELL COTE of 1958.

The Lloyds

As Freshmen we surveyed the campus wide-eyed, until the welcoming smiles of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd reduced our fears. As Seniors, we face the future with anxiety and excitement, but unafraid, as we mature in mind and emotion under their careful guidance. As Time Marches On, students will come and go, but none will miss that home on the hill as much as we.

September 1957

Brought many new phases of college life to the campus.

Our first mixer was quite a success

Our freshman endure a bit of happy hour during Hell Week.

Seniors enjoy Hell Week just as much as the Freshmen.

Hell Week produces quite a few rare sights.

October 1957

Entertained the Seniors with Freshman Varieties and "Hell Week"

Eleanor McGinnis and Louise Loomis accompany the dancers in the Jamaica scene of Varieties.

Could this be "Hell Week?"

"Proper dress" on campus for Freshmen during "Hell Week."

Ann Whitson and Susan Galloway portray space hobos in Freshman Varieties.

November 1957

Brought us various sports events and many parties.

Girls turn out to root for their house in an Inter-House sports program.

Our hockey team gave us an exciting season.

Ann Sutherland enjoys herself at a November House Party.

Freshmen meet new boys at the fall mixer.

December 1957

Was filled with the Christmas Spirit.

Our first big snow.

The girls in Clark House enjoy their Christmas Party.

Mrs. Ford unwraps her Christmas present.

Judy Toranto looks on as Mr. Lloyd unwraps his present from the Student Body at the Christmas Dinner.

The Day Student's Christmas Party.

Cooperative Council

Mrs. McLaughlin, Ann Macpherson, Jane Smith, Miss Day, Edith Davis, Mary Margaret Emmet, Prudence King, Barbara Vereen, Judith Jones, Lorena Dasher, Mr. Eckert, Nancy Swan, Isabelle Mills, Carol Best.

Cooperative Council consists of representatives from the student body, its officers, and the faculty. It considers problems, enacts legislation, and makes recommendations to the Administration concerning all phases of life on campus, both academic and social.

Judy Toranto, Student Body President

Honor Council

Brenda Shackman, Edith Willis, Sharon Hall, President.

Brenda Shackman, Day Student Representative to Honor Council; Sharon Hall, President of Honor Council.

The Academic Honor System at Mount Vernon encourages a sense of honor by placing upon each individual the responsibility for academic honesty. Honor Council representatives from both classes deal with alleged violations of the Honor Code, and serve as consultants for students when they have problems and questions concerned with the Honor System.

The Student Court

Student Court membership consists of the House Presidents and representatives from both classes. These members act as the disciplinary judges of Mount Vernon. It is the duty of the court to keep accurate records and make impartial judgments, to the best of its ability.

Judy Toronto, Student Body President

Optima

First row: Penny Jennings, Marcia Jackson, Gayle Grimes. Second row: Edith Willis, Cookie Smith, Dabney Thompson, Patricia Williams, President; Rosaline de Chollet, Karen Gilmore, Jackie Stone.

Karen Gilmore and Gayle Grimes

The aim of Optima is to maintain and to strengthen high standards of scholarship and uprightness in the school. The club plans many special functions and joins in other affairs, throughout the year.

World Affairs

Bonnie Blackman, President of World Affairs; Doctor Elmer A. Kyser, of George Washington University, regular speaker at World Affairs Meetings.

The World Affairs Club is meant to further the interest of the students in the current world situation. This is done by having Dr. Elmer Kayser as a regular speaker to talk on problems pertinent to the times, and by inviting other speakers to talk on specific subjects relating to the current situation.

Social League

First row: Mrs. Peter R. McRae, Advisor; Marilyn Milnor, Sharon Hall, President; Carol Fisher, Lee Altsheler. Second row: Ann Gregoy, Carol Best.

Sharon Hall, President

The Social League is composed of representatives from both classes. It organizes all the school parties, dances and special functions. The highlights of the year include May Day and the Christmas Dance which is held at the Sulgrave Club.

Glee Club

Roseline de Chollet, President

The Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. William Eckert, is composed of both Freshmen and Seniors who are interested in singing. It participates in Chapel, Father's Day, May Day and joint concerts with leading Men's Universities.

Lend-A-Hand

Polly Krampf, President; Anne Macpherson, Carol Best, Secretary.

Lend-A-Hand is a social service organization dedicated to helping those in need. This club sponsors many projects during the year, such as volunteer work at the Georgetown Hospital. Girls do these projects several afternoons each week. These programs offer great experience to the girls at Mount Vernon.

Spanish and French Clubs

FRENCH CLUB—First row: Prudence King, Virginia Ledbetter, Suzanne Brown, Bette Jane Fairfax, President. Second row: Evelyn Ransom, Karen Gilmore, Cecile Anschutz. Third row: Mary Latsey, Nancy Swan, Judith Barker, Sharon Hall, Belle Turner, Ann Gregory, Nancy Roberts, Bonnie Blackman, Mary Margaret Emmet.

Cookie Smith, President of Spanish Club;
Mrs. Marcel Vigneras, Sponsor of Spanish Club.

The Spanish and French Clubs are organizations composed of students interested in furthering their knowledge and understanding of these languages and of the contries where they are spoken.

The Christian Forum and the Psychology Club

Patricia Williams, President of the Psychology Club; Dr. Harold Lindner, Sponsor of the Psychology Club.

The Psychology Club makes the student more aware of psychology through lectures and increases the students interest in class-work by widening her knowledge and making her more capable of logical thinking and independent judgments. The Christian Forum, on the other hand, helps the student to gain information about religion, learn more of the faith to which she already belongs, and to help understand the basic purpose of a Christian Church.

Dance and Drama Clubs

The members of the Drama Club are girls interested in some phase of the theater. The Dance Club gives students an opportunity to use the exercises and movements they have learned in class to develop creative dance of their own. Both clubs are interested in furthering creative interest in the dance and dramatics.

Merriweather House

MERRIWEATHER HOUSE COUNCIL—Mary Lynn Schwarz, Mrs. Peter R. McRae, Merriweather House Resident; Barbara Vereen, House President; Carol Fisher.

Mrs. Peter R. McRae, Merriweather House Resident.

Class Prophecy

PROPHECY OF THE CLASS OF 1958

Time brings many changes to a person's life. Ten years have passed since the Class of 1958 left Mount Vernon. Let's see what time has brought it!

Cecile Anschutz, Bette Jane Fairfax, and Sue Straus have opened a plant to manufacture "Beat Navy" buttons.

Judy Barker is still recovering from a National Bo hangover.

Bonnie Blackman has secured a position on the National Board of Information.

Rosanne Blair has perfected a new type of Rosebud.

Susan Blocker has opened a Brazil Nut stand in the Field House.

Aurelia Brabham is working for The Voice of America communicating with Spain and Mexico.

Jan Brinkerhoff is now designing sadistic cards.

Beverly Carter and her husband appear nightly on the hillbilly program, Town and Country.

Nancy Cassidy and Gayle Grimes have become housemothers for the Phi Gam's at Washington and Lee University and North Carolina.

Bena Dasher is head of the Commission for canoe navigation on the Potomac River.

Roseline de Chollet is one of the leading singers in the field of television commercials.

Lolly Desloge is touring Europe in her Mount Vernon sweatshirt.

Joyce Dutton is part-time owner of a Corvette agency.

Joanne Dwinnell is now playing the piano for Rand's extension on Planet X.

Mary Margaret Emmet, after many years of scientific research, has perfected a new coated shell for M & M candies.

Carol Fisher, Betty Hohlt, and Eleanor Smith have become social directors at the Elbow Beach Surf Club in Bermuda to encourage the dating between various colleges such as Yale and Mount Vernon.

Parthy Gibson has been sentenced to live in Charlottesville the rest of her life.

Karen Gilmore recently flunked out of Slippery Rock Teachers College.

Betty Greene still sits in the Field House.

Sharon Hall has become a beauty-rest tester in Moon Macy's Department Store window.

Sally Hurlbut is nursing the Harvard track team back to health.

Barbara Ingalls has become the Perle Mesta of Mars and gives the best parties that side of earth.

Marcia Jackson has created dancing out of this world.

Phyllis James can be hired as a chaperone for annual government trips to Baltimore.

Penny Jennings has just dyed her hair "Sandy".

Polly Krampf can claim fame for her newest fashion rage—a bone through the nose.

Mary Latsey is taking pictures for Life in Lower Slobovia.

Linda Lay is an accomplished athlete.

Kay Lungstras has become organized and it's driving her crazy.

Betty McManus sings "California Here I Come" as she hikes home to get Rich.

Anne Macpherson is painting the town Perriwinkle Blue.

Trina Mills is modeling her voguish ensembles for J. C. Penny.

People no longer say Marilyn Monroe but Marilyn Milnor.

Mary Nauert just opened Nauertfinckle's in Florida.

Martha Pender recently invented contact lenses for moon men.

Lynn Ransom is still challenging Sigmund Freud.

Rita Reed is bopping around the World in 80 Days.

Nancy Roberts has rearranged the United States so Houston is across the street from Philadelphia.

Pat Roberts has invented a new efficiency machine called Dave the Slave.

Jeanette Robertson is living in North Carolina with her husband, Tim, and their four growing children.

Jane Robinson is working at the Roulette Wheel in Monte Carlo.

Sue Rohrer, in this critical world period, has written a book called Warren Peace.

Peggy Rucker lives in an Ivy covered mansion in Jacksonville.

Brenda Senior has found a new way to twist pretzels.

Jane Smith started a campaign to wipe out all moths since they ate her sweater collection.

Cookie Smith is canoeing instructor at the University of Pennsylvania.

Leslie Stevenson has founded a West Navy Point.

Jackie Stone has made the Rock of Gibraltar crumble singing "All of Me".

Julie Stubbs has run out of magic words since she took over Herb Davis' place on WEAM radio.

Nancy Swan has written and edited her own Thesaurus for people who want to be "hep to the jive".

Dabney Thompson is now working for Guilbo's.

Judy Toranto has invented a new permanent make-up in order to join the Breakfast Club.

Becky Traband just recorded a new hit record of the old hit "Yes It's Me and I'm in Love Again".

Barbara Vereen is still getting up before the cock crows.

Nancy Wagner now holds Dorothy Dix's position on the paper.

Barbara Wallander still excels in sales in the men's department of Sak's Fifth Avenue.

Mary Beth Williams has established an extension of Georgetown University in Tokyo.

Pat Williams gives strong competition to the Hilton Chain of Hotels.

Edith Willis has organized a world wide search for her "R" sweater.

Cynthia Woodward still makes it a habit never to forget her programs when she goes to plays. It is too much trouble to get them afterwards.

Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1958

- I, CECILE ANSCHUTZ, leave all my navy spirit to Cynthia Smith wherever she may be stationed!
- I, JUDY BARKER, will my gray wrap-around skirt to anyone who wants to wear it!
- I, BONNIE BLACKMAN, leave the Washington Monument to Suzanne Brown and Mary Kell Putty, and the Christmas dance to Ginia Ledbetter.
- I, ROSANNE BLAIR, leave to Nancy Farrell my slippers, robe, and the blue scarf that keeps my hair from fluffing up.
- I, SUSAN BLOCKER, leave my talent for getting demerits to Lee Altsheller.
- I, AURELIA BRABHAM, will my bulletin board and my "Venus" to Judy Evans.
- I, JAN BRINKERHOFF, leave my loud, hearty voice to Margaret Eastham so she can yell "House Meeting!" and get results.
- I, NICKY BRUSELL, leave my collection of Brazilian records to Prudy King.
- I, BEVERLY CARTER, leave to Heather Hydeman a list of the seniors so she may get to know with whom she goes to school.
- I, NANCY CASSEDY, leave my membership in the Mickey Mouse Club to Louise Loomis.
- I, BENA DASHER, will my "Fats Domino" records to Cici Heasley to take the place of Lester Lanin.
- I, ROSELINE DE CHOLLET, leave my frequent trips to Yale?? and the title of Bombshell to Lynn Aspinwall.
- I, LOLLY DESLOGE, leave my nightly phone calls to Laura Smith.
- I, JOYCE DUTTON, leave my "out-to-lunch" bucket to Dutchess Ferguson in hopes she can get rid of it.
- I, JOANNE DWINNELL, leave my dancing exhibitions to Honey Hunt to the accompaniment of Louise Loomis' bongo drums.
- I, MARY MARGARET EMMET, leave a worn pair of shin guards to Patsy Scarlett in hopes that they will protect her from further bruises.
- I, BETTE JANE FAIRFAX, leave to Barbara Peake my ability to fall asleep at any time, any place, and almost anywhere.
- I, CAROL FISHER, leave my title of "Foggy Fish" to Schuyler Campbell in hopes that she can live up to it.
- I, PARTHIE GIBSON, leave Mr. Graffs' address to any near sighted freshmen.
- I, KAREN GILMORE, leave Carol Best . . . behind!
- I, BETTY GREENE, leave my place in the library to anyone who wants to transfer to the University of North Carolina.
- I, GAYLE GRIMES, say, "Sorry Susan—there just isn't anything left."
- I, SHARON HALL, leave my unending supply of "health foods" to Nancy Brown.
- I, BETTY HOHLT, leave my organization ability to Mary Hyser.
- I, SALLY HURLBUT, leave my big appetite to anyone who needs it.
- I, BARBARA INGALLS, leave those Phi Delta Theta's to Sis Foster.
- I, MARCIA JACKSON, leave to Vicki Cleveland my rather "squared" good nature, broad-minded outlook on life, absorbing interest in people, and love of squirrels, provided that she will at least be able to curb the last characteristic.
- I, PHYLLIS JAMES, leave Molly Mumford to carry on "S. B." and "H. D."
- I, PENNY JENNINGS, leave a bottle of catsup to the Field House, and all my hair clips to Hope Pine.
- I, POLLY KRAMPE, leave to Marnie Sinclair one ticket to Africa.

I, MIMI LATSEY, leave my black tights to Susan Galloway as an inspiration toward achieving great reknown.

I, LINDA LAY, leave my love of the South and my Southern accent to Margo Maritz.

I, KAY LUNGSTRAS, leave Mr. Eckert's music class to anyone who has enough musical ability to play Row, Row, Row Your Boat.

I, BETTY MCMANUS, leave my greenness as a freshman to Heather Hydeman.

I, ANNE MACPHERSON, leave to Gay Crutchfield my visits to Brewton, Alabama.

I, TRINA MILLER, leave all the "snowmen" in a certain Georgetown gang to Ann Jones.

I, ISSY MILLS, leave all my Princeton tigers, etc., to Nell McElroy.

I, MARILYN MILNOR, leave all of Ella Fitzgerald's educated fleas to Diana Day.

I, MARY NAUERT, leave to Julie Kassebaum all my old Georgetown dates in hope that she can snow them.

I, MARTHA PENDER, leave all of Jimmy's Bufferin bottles to Tex.

I, LYNN RANSOM, leave late study hall forever.

I, RITA REED, leave my W & L weekends and my ability to catch the trains there to Neva Chambers.

I, NANCY ROBERTS, leave to four courageous freshmen a ride on the Potomac.

I, PAT ROBERTS, leave my so-called density to Molly Mumford.

I, JANE ROBINSON, also leave my place in the library to anyone who tries to make good grades.

I, SUSAN ROHRER, leave my messy room to anybody who can live in it as well as I have!

I, PEGGY RUCKER, leave Jupp to Heather Hydeman only because I've known her all my life.

I, BRENDA SENIOR, leave to Hope Pine the Page Boy Hairdo and to Lynn Aspinwall, MacArthur's!

I, ELEANOR SMITH, leave my Hillbilly music to Susan White in hopes that someday she will succeed in teaching me to buck dance.

I, JANE SMITH, unwillingly leave the tenement.

I, COOKIE SMITH, leave Neva's black heels to Neva Chambers.

I, LESLIE STEVENSON, leave my favorite expression, "Beat Navy," to Vicki Cleveland in hopes that she will use it often.

I, JACKIE STONE, leave my black leather "party" shoes to Fran Frost.

I, SUE STRAUS, leave Annapolis to the Navy since my four-year-lease is up.

I, JULIE STUBBS, leave my hectic life with the student-body president to whoever rooms with the next one.

I, NANCY SWAN, leave my "love" for pepsi colas to Heather Hydeman.

I, DABNEY THOMPSON, leave my good times at the SAE House to anyone who dates there.

I, JUDY TORANTO, leave my pony tail to Mary Wayne in hopes that she will stop wearing the horse-hair one.

I, BECKY TRABAND, leave my tickets to the Shakespearean plays to any Freshman taking English Literature.

I, BARBARA VEREEN, leave to Mary Lynn Schwarz my habitual loveliness, since we are both sooo beautiful!

I, NANCY WAGNER, leave my morning waking-up ability to anyone who needs it.

I, BARBARA WALLANDER, leave my ragged sneakers to Honey Hunt.

I, MARY BETH WILLIAMS, leave to Gail Price and Ann Jones room 26 on the second floor of Cole House.

I, TRISH WILLIAMS, leave to Wynn Conard the long Princeton weekends and the trips to the Congressional.

I, DD WILLIS, leave my liquid dieting to Lucy Annibali in hopes that she will keep it for me.

I, CYNNY WOODWARD, leave my ability to ask brilliant questions and make intelligent commentaries to anyone else who is always on the ball.

Class Song of the Class of 1958

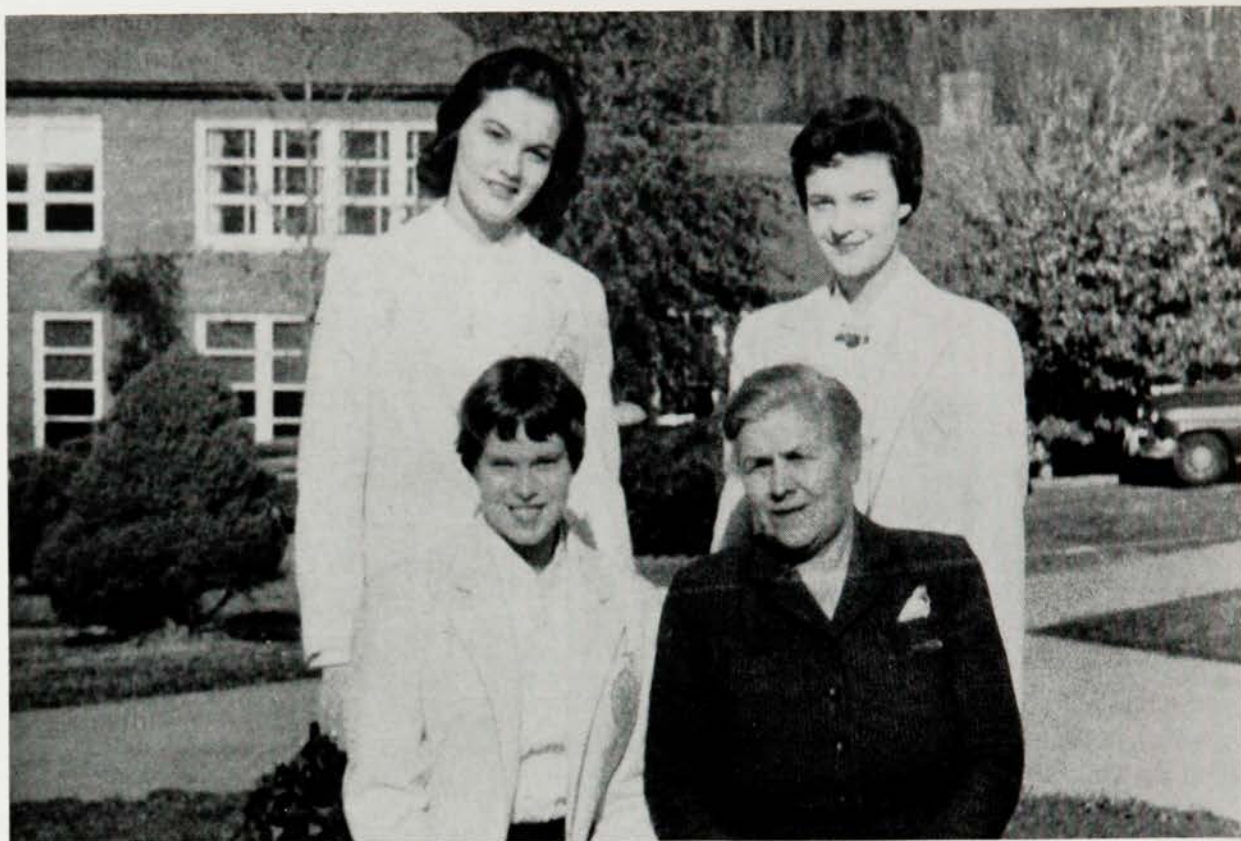

*In years to come we shall recall
Our class of '58.
These memories will linger on
While new ones we create.
Though paths we tread are far apart,
We'll carry deep within our heart
The thoughts of all the friends you've brought.
Mount Vernon hail to thee!*

Class Song of the Class of 1959

*All hail the class of '59
For whom we wish to cheer.
The memories of our happiness
We always will hold dear.
From classroom work to field of sport
Our honor we will hold.
All hail Mount Vernon Junior College
Our colors pink and rose.*

"Your eyes are like . . ."

Serious Judy Jones and her Siamese followers.

That's about a thousand calories, Leslie!

You may be happy now but wait until it melts!

They're as "corny as Kansas in August."

Mary and M.M. ham it up for the camera.

Cole House Freshmen with their Rogue's Gallery.

A letter from whom, Trina?

"Aw . . . a picture of me?"

Doth music soothe the savage beast?

My but you're lovely!

Uhhh!

*What cha gonna do now
Ma . . . ry?*

You notice, no one is using the books.

"Who made a goal?"

Ever seen snow before?

Tense moment on the bench.

Casual Julie Stubbs.

"Behold all, I'm here."

Betty McManus and Betsy Bayer sleep thru Glee Club practice.

Under the spreading ?? tree.

Oh! Do you know . . . ?

Let's go to the Hop!

Now chew each bite 20 times . . .

"Who was Beowulf anyway?"

A formal gathering of the Clark House crew.

"I got my eyes on you."

*"Good morning!"
"We're having a roll call."*

Have a blast, kids!

"Yeah, man, pour me some more."

"It's kinda hard to study for all my exams at once!"

Rosebud prepares to strike.

Vive la Field House.

O.K. Where is Santa Claus?

There's a spot on the hill, where 18 of us
Live together without any fuss.
There are crazy things we sometimes do,
Like “shower parties”—right, Lay and Magoo?
Then we have some real high class
Lunatics in the Senior Class—
And, oh, those freshmen, what a crew!!
You can never tell what they're gonna do—
But there's no doubt about it, we all agree
We're the finest gang WE ever did see.
And things considered, all in all,
Just ask one of us—It's really a “ball”.

the value of a Venus de Milo that it is quality which survives

the acid test of time.

Like fine music and art,
fine printing will have a lasting appeal.
